Novice Clinic Featuring Jillian Stroh

Saturday, June 5, 2021
Sheffield Farm
445 Sheffield Road, Ithaca, NY

9:00 AM- 5:00 PM

Drinks and pre-packaged snacks will be provided.
Clinic participants, please bring your own lunch.

This clinic is for novice drivers who have their own horse/pony to drive and who understand the basics of carriage driving, harnessing, hitching and safety. The goal is to offer a safe, welcoming environment under the guidance of a professional.

Meet the Clinician

Jillian Stroh has been working with horses for almost two decades. From 2008-2009 Jillian was a working student for Muffy Seaton at Shepherds Purse Farm in Williston, SC. After her working student position, Jillian graduated from Morrisville State College with an Associates degree in Agriculture Business.

In 2008, Jillian became full time navigator and groom for Janelle Marshall. In 2011, Jillian navigated and groomed for Marshall at the World Pony Driving Championships in Lipica, Slovenia where they finished 18th out of 31.

Jillian's extensive and successful showing career extends along the east coast, from Quebec to Florida. She shows in pleasure driving, combined driving, and driven dressage. Jillian trains out of Freshwind Farm in Eaton, NY where she trains in both pleasure and combined driving. She works with every size equine in singles, pairs, and tandems.
